

Cracker – club root resistant oilseed rape

Cracker is a club root resistant hybrid that is on the HGCA RL for the East & West (44.7% oil content) and a candidate variety for the North (44.1% oil content) where it has a gross output of 101%.

Good disease resistance: Cracker has a top-scoring Light Leaf Spot rating of 9 and a stem canker resistance of 4. It also has good resistance to lodging (8) and is early to flower (7) whilst maturing during the normal OSR window (5).

CRACKER – summary

- ❖ Resistant to club root
- ❖ Good oil content
- ❖ Candidate variety in the North
- ❖ Excellent LLS resistance

